

Find an advocate to help you make a submission

PWDA has advocates who can support you with the Disability Royal Commission.

Advocates can help you

- With information about the Disability Royal Commission
- Make your submission
- Ask for a private session

Advocates can support you to speak at a public hearing.

Advocates can help you get legal advice.

Legal advice means information about the law and your rights.

Advocates can help you find a counselling service.

Counselling services support you when you are sad or upset about something.

You do not have to pay for a PWDA advocate.

PWDA advocates do not share your information with other people.

They can also help you with issues that are not the Disability Royal Commission.

This could be issues with

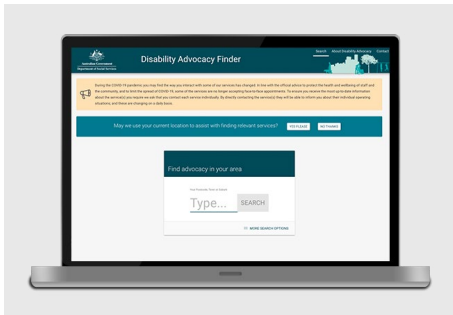

- Centrelink
- The NDIS
- Housing

To speak to our advocates
