

What is next?

The Disability Royal Commission looks into the big problems for people with disability.

We will say DRC for short.

People could make submissions to the DRC.

A submission is when you tell the DRC

- About bad things that happened to you
- What you know about the problems for people with disability.

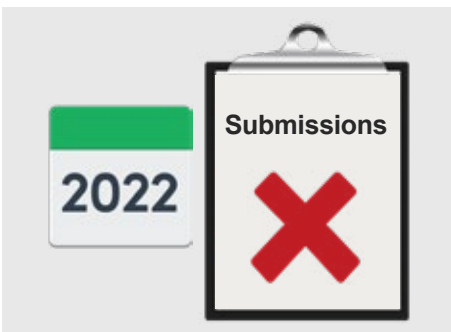

PWDA also made a submission to the DRC.

Our submission has lots of things that need to change for people with disability.

To read more about our DRC submission go to www.ourroyalcommission.com.au/our-resources/pwda-submissions

The DRC stopped taking submissions in 2022.

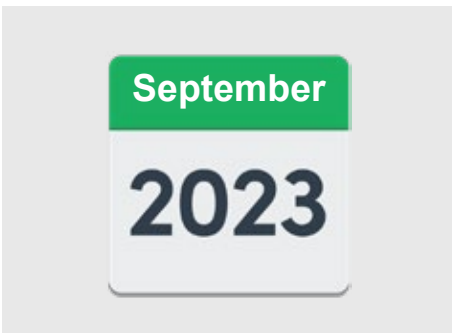

The DRC will now write a report.

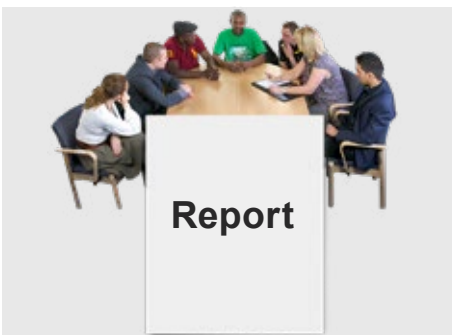

The report will have

- The things the DRC found out from the submissions
- What the DRC thinks should happen.

The report will be done by September 2023.

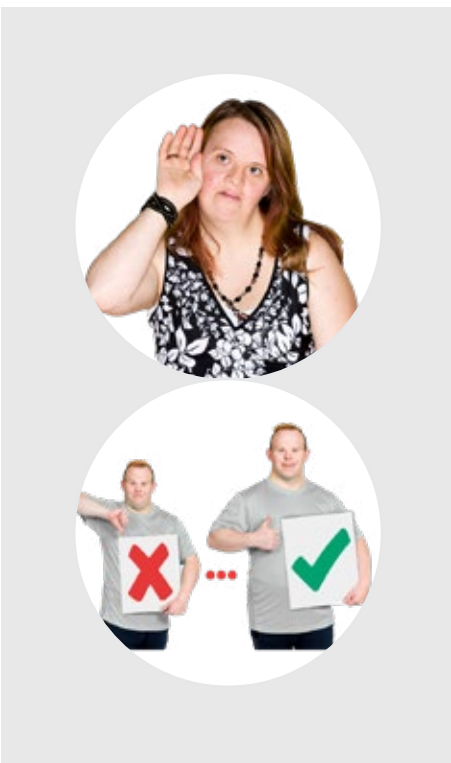

The DRC will share the report with everyone.

When the report comes out it is time to make sure things change for people with disability.

Disability organisations and people with disability must work together to make change happen.

We need to make sure the Government

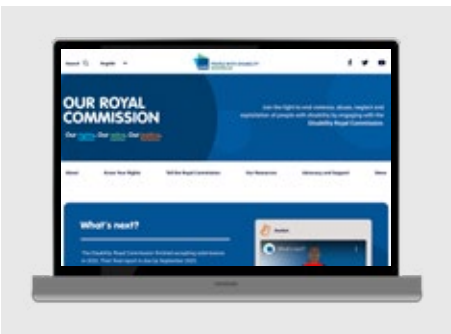

- Listens to what the report says
- Makes the changes the DRC put in the report.

You can start to get ready for when the report comes out.

PWDA has some ideas about what you can do to get ready.

Council for Intellectual Disability made this information Easy Read. CID for short. You need to ask CID if you want to use any pictures in this document. You can contact CID at business@cid.org.au.
